(Corner of Main and Mulberry Streets),
Lexington, Kentucky.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has leased this old and well known Hotel, in the city of Lexington, and that he has taken charge of the same. The House has recently undergone a thorough renovation; the rooms are newly and neatly furnished; and still further improvements will be made to render it in all respects worthy of public patronage, and an agreeable home to those who may avail themselves of its privileges. Intending to devote his own time and attention to the business, and to surround himself with competent assistants, together with faithful, polite and attentive servants, he gives the assurance to the public that no efforts on his part shall be wanting to make the old Phoenix in all respects worthy of its reputation in its palmy days. Professions, however, are too easily and too frequently made to be of much value unless accompanied by corresponding acts, and he, therefore, only asks that the public may test the sincerity of his pledges by giving him a call. They will always find him ready to minister to their comforts in the best manner in his power.

LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINES have now been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.
The following are among the distressing varieties of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES are well known to be infallible.
Dyspepsia, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; Flatulency, loss of appetite, Heart Burn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-humor, Anxiety, Langor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.
Constipation, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.
Fevers of all kinds, by restoring the blood to regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.
The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and Gout in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.
Dropsies of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases.
Also Worms, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.
Scurvy, Ulcers, and Insectate Sores, by the perfect purity of the Life Medicines given to the blood, and all the humors.
Scorbatic Eruptions, and Bad Complexions, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, scallow, cloudy, and other disfigurements.
The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of Salt Rheum, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. Common Colds and Influenza will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.
The original proprietor of these Medicines was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.
FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease; a cure by these Medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.
Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Female purity Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description.—King's Evil, and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Piles, &c., are speedily cured.
Mercurial Diseases.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.
Prepared and sold by W. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, New York.
For sale by all Druggists. oct15, '60—wly.

2. That their thanks are also due to Maj. Gen. Buell, his officers and soldiers, for their zeal, energy, courage, and success in expelling from the borders of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in the autumn of 1862, the Confederate invaders under the rebel Generals Bragg and Kirby Smith, and especially for the splendid triumph of our arms at Chaplin Hills.

Mr. Sparks' Resolutions.

The following are the resolutions offered by Mr. Sparks, on Saturday, Feb. 7th, in the House of Representatives:

In times of war, as in peace, the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land. It prescribes the powers of the Government no less in its executive, than in other departments, and it is the only legal bond of union between the States.

The Federal Government, as defined by the Constitution, when exercising the powers granted to it, is entitled to the allegiance and full support of every good citizen, and loyalty to the Government imposes the strongest obligations to support the administration in the enforcement of the laws, and it is the duty of all good citizens to resist all encroachments upon their liberties, and to defend the Constitution of their country and the Union of these States from the assaults of foreign and domestic traitors, and he who violates this principle is loyal to the Constitution and an enemy to the freedom of his country.

The Federal Government derives all its legitimate powers from the Constitution, and in obedience to it, is bound to use every effort to suppress the rebellion now existing in the seceded States; and if the administrators of the Government fail to perform this duty, they will, themselves, sooner or later, be overthrown by an intelligent, virtuous, and free people by the peaceful exercise of their sovereign powers at the ballot box. The Government that has no power to punish armed rebels against its laws, cannot afford proper protection to its citizens.

The history of the present administration of the so-called Confederate Government is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations tending directly to the overthrow of the liberties of the people, and a consolidation of all political power in the hands of a few, and the execution of a military despotism as tyrannical and despotic as the worst Government of Europe, to prove which, we refer to the following facts:

The President of the so-called Confederate States has, without authority, suspended the writ of habeas corpus, thus striking a deadly blow at the liberties of the people.

He has caused loyal citizens to be arrested and transported to distant States and incarcerated in loathsome prisons, without charge or accusation against them.

He has denied to citizens thus arrested and imprisoned, a trial by jury, or, indeed, any trial, and has withheld from them all knowledge, or information as to their accusers, or the causes of their arrest.

He has subjected his prisoners, thus held to barbarous and inhuman treatment, endangering their life and health, and has required hundreds of them, so held, as a condition upon which they might be released, to take illegal oaths, arbitrarily prescribed by himself or his agents.

He has attempted to destroy the freedom of the press by the forcible suppression of newspapers, and by endeavoring to curtail the measures of his administration; and such as have escaped suppression have been subjected to a censorship wholly incompatible with freedom of thought or expression of opinion.

He has attempted to destroy the freedom of speech by arresting citizens who have ventured upon the measures of his administration.

He has caused to be arrested persons engaged in circulating petitions for the signatures of the people, thus interfering with the right of petition.

He has wholly disregarded the rights of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures.

He has, in some of the States, (among which Virginia and Tennessee may be particularly mentioned,) forcibly wrested from the citizens the right of the people to strike down the elective franchise; and eminent citizens of this and other States are now in confinement in distant prisons for no other known reason than that they were loyal to the Government of their fathers.

He has quartered his troops in the houses of our citizens against their will; and he has permitted them to overrun the State, destroying houses and the fencing of farms and lots; they have sacked the houses of peaceful and loyal citizens, destroying their furniture, family pictures, carpets, clothing, and other articles of household goods, and robbed them of their silver-ware, stock and provisions.

He has permitted his wagon-masters and others, with armed soldiers, to seize the corn, oats, and hay, &c., of our loyal citizens for the use of the rebel army, without their consent, fixing their own price upon them, and making their own estimate as to the value and quantity taken, and giving no receipt, name or voucher whereby the owner could successfully seek his way, or paid in Confederate money of small value.

He has permitted his officers and soldiers to enslave slaves from loyal masters and owners, take them within their camps, and by force protect them from reclamation; and when the owner has attempted to recover and protect his property, he has been maltreated and imprisoned.

He has permitted his officers and soldiers, without authority, of law, to levy large contributions of money upon unoffending citizens, under the pretense of reimbursing other citizens for losses sustained by the casualties of war.

He has, by force of arms, taken possession of large quantities of wheat, and taken possession of mills to grind his stolen breadstuffs, and refused to permit our citizens to grind on them wheat or corn necessary for their families.

He has signed bills of confiscation, confiscating all the property of loyal citizens and foreigners, who refused allegiance to his new Confederacy.

He has signed bills to prevent citizens of the so-called Confederate State from paying their just and honest contracts to citizens and merchants of the Northern States: putting men under bonds and compelling them to be dishonest, whether they will or not.

He has permitted his officers and soldiers, with impunity, to murder the peaceable and loyal citizens of the State of Kentucky.

He has utterly set aside the Constitution of the United States, and is engaged in an armed rebellion for the avowed purpose of overthrowing the Government, trampling the Constitution underfoot, and thus depriving the people of their priceless liberties.

In conjunction with many other highly honored citizens of Kentucky, he has raised his parasol hand against the Government and country that educated him, in its bounty protected him all his past life, bestowed upon him many honorable positions, and would still delight to honor him, were he not engaged in a monstrous and iniquitous rebellion and deserting a traitor's doom.

In view of the foregoing facts, the truth of which cannot be denied, we do firmly believe, and solemnly declare, that any countenance furnished the Executive of the so-called Confederate States, in the prosecution of this unholy war, tends immediately and directly to the overthrow of both the Federal and State Governments—wherefore,

1. Resolved, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky,

That Kentucky will, by all constitutional means in her power, protect her citizens in the enjoyment of the elective franchise, the benefits of the writ of habeas corpus, the security of their persons and property, against the unconstitutional edict of the Confederate Executive and their enforcement by the army under his control.

2. Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land, and every citizen of Kentucky ought to yield full and implicit obedience to it; and that "Kentucky understands her own interests too well to be thankful for gratuitous advice as to the mode in which she should manage them, and when she wants the assistance of any outside administration of her affairs, she claims the privilege of originating the suggestion"—consequently the propositions of the Confederate States for Kentucky's alliance is hereby scornfully rejected.

3. Resolved, That the Proclamations of the President of the United States, dated September 22d, 1862, and January 1st, 1863, purporting to emancipate the slaves in certain States and parts of States, set forth therein, are unwarranted by any code, either civil or military, and of such character and tendency as not to be submitted to by a people jealous of their liberties.

4. Resolved, That Kentucky will cordially unite with the Democracy of the Northern States in an earnest endeavor to bring about a speedy termination of the existing war.

5. Resolved, That Kentucky's interest and duty urge her to cling to the Union with faithful tenacity, now that both the extreme sectional parties of the country are arrayed against it, and that she intends to do so regardless of any sacrifice other than her honor.

6. Resolved, That Kentucky fondly sympathizes with all her citizens who have been admitted during the progress of this unfortunate war, and while she mourns her illustrious dead who have fallen on many battle fields, she has the consolation of knowing that they fell nobly fighting in the cause of Union and Freedom.

7. Resolved, That we, as loyal men and Kentuckians, are for all our rights in the Union, peaceably if we can, forcibly if we must; that we ask nothing but what is constitutional and just, and if we submit to wrongs it will only be when we cannot help ourselves.

8. Resolved, That the Governor of Kentucky is hereby requested to forward a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to the President of the United States, and to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1863.

We shall publish, in to-morrow's paper, the speech of Hon. N. W. Wolfe, on the resolutions now before the House of Representatives, in relation to Federal Relations. Gentlemen who may wish to have copies of our paper containing the speech, can obtain them by leaving orders with either of our Reporters—in the Senate or House of Representatives—during the day.

We rarely meet with a man who will admit he is a secessionist. In fact when the epithet is applied to members of the party now organizing to take Kentucky out of the Union and into the Southern Confederacy, they become indignant. Names are of no consequence, provided the real purpose can be got at. Whether we call them secessionists, Southern Rights men, or what not, if their purpose is to take Kentucky out of the Union, or to aid the Southern Confederacy, they are to all intents as guilty of treason as those who, with more courage, have committed the overt act. We know men who indignantly deny that they are secessionists, yet all their neighbors say that they are. A man may say he is not a thief, but the unanimous belief and knowledge of the whole community in which he has lived, overcome his declaration.

When men act and talk secession, honest people are very apt to judge them accordingly. By a man's daily walk and conversation he is known; his deeds are the best and most conclusive evidence against him; and if he has thereby proclaimed his political character, he cannot complain.

There are some things certain with regard to this class of men. They have opposed the war for the protection and preservation of the Union, from the beginning; oppose it now, and declare their purpose to withhold men and money to prosecute it further. They are constantly denouncing the Federal authorities, while they scrupulously avoid any word of complaint or censure against the Southern Confederacy. They hate Union men and spurn the brave Union soldiers, while they daily and nightly associate with acknowledged traitors, and hug the rebels to their bosoms.

Their families openly proclaim sympathy with the rebel cause, secretly send clothing and provisions to rebel prisoners, and flaunt secession flags and badges in the faces of Union people. They are for peace upon terms which allow dismemberment of the Union. They are against the Government, and for the Southern Confederacy. They propose to fight the Federal authorities, and withhold the bayonet and bullet from the bodies of the foul traitors to the Union. They propose to stop the war against traitors. Their is no odor of loyalty about them. Their whole conduct, their daily walk and conversation, and associations, for eighteen months, have convinced every one in the community that they are secessionists, and we care not what name they have. We only know that they are against their country, and that all their talk, influence, and sympathies are on the side of the rebels.

Every man must take sides. He could not if he would, and should not if he could, avoid the issue. He who is not for his country is against it. He who is not a patriot—one willing to give his life, his property, and every energy of mind and soul to support and defend his Government—is a traitor. And when he either fails in the discharge of a direct, positive, affirmative obligation, or gives aid, comfort, or sympathy to foreign or domestic enemies, he is a traitor. When our country is fighting, there is the highest possible obligation to defend it, and if we fail in this obligation, we are as much a traitor as he who commits the overt act. The traitor by omission is as base as the traitor by commission. The man who stands by and permits a murder, when he could prevent it, is as guilty, in the sight of God and man, as the murderer.

[For the Commonwealth.]
The Rebel Convention on the 18th inst.

As the rebels have concluded to hold a State convention in Frankfort, on the 18th instant, for the real purpose of laying plans for carrying Kentucky into the Southern Confederacy, and as all the rebels throughout the State ought to have fair and full notice of the penalties attached to the crime, their leaders are urging them to commit, it might not be out of place, at this time, to re-publish the first section of an act of the Legislature of Kentucky in reference to this subject, approved August 28, 1862, which reads as follows:

"That if any person shall, within this State, hold any secret or public meetings, or unite with, or belong to, any secret club or association, known by him or them to be intended to effect, promote, or endanger the separation or secession of this State from the Government or Union of the United States; or to effect, promote, or encourage the incorporation or union of this State with the so-called Southern Confederacy, every such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in the Penitentiary not less than one, nor more than five years." [See printed laws, page 20.]

As the rebels throughout the State, who are invited to attend this meeting, really gotten up for treasonable purposes, may not be aware of the penalties denounced against such crime, this notice may prove a blessing to them.

In addition, it might be well to advise all rebeldom throughout Kentucky that the Grand Jury for Franklin county will be in session in Frankfort on the 18th of this month, and that the law will be rigidly enforced against all traitors who may dare to violate the above section, by holding a Jeff.

Davis Convention for the purpose of carrying Kentucky into the Southern Confederacy. If they are determined, after full notice, to violate this law, let them do it at their peril. The Penitentiary is not yet full, and loyal juries will not shrink from a rigid discharge of their duty. It is folly to send armies into the field, and at the same time allow home traitors to organize and quietly carry out their infamous purposes. X.

Gen. Burnside—A Washington dispatch states that Gen. Burnside, with unexampled magnanimity, offers to resume command of his old army corps, and fight under Hooker. He positively asserts that he will not remain in the service without a command, holding it to be the duty of every man holding a commission to give his time and energies to the cause of the Government. He is greatly surprised and alarmed at the threatening posture of the Democratic party in the North, and without vigorous and successful action by the Government, apprehends that we may have a formidable fire in the rear.

THE GREAT FIRE AT TROY, N. Y.

The Phoenix of Hartford.

[Extracts from letters from S. L. Loomis, Esq., President of the Phoenix Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., to R. H. & H. M. Magill, General Agents, relative to the late serious conflagration at Troy.]

PHOENIX INSURANCE COMPANY, Hartford, Conn., May 12, 1862.

"A big fire at Troy—we are in how much we don't know. May be $20,000; but whatever it is, it will be paid as fast as adjusted, and no crying. Secretary Kellogg went up there this morning. Mr. Wallace (Adjuster) will meet him there to-morrow. They will make short work of it. The fire swept off about fifty acres of buildings—a calamity to Troy, but one no human forecast could have prevented. It is the first emergency we ever had, and such an one as gives more character to a Company than a hundred $5,000 claims."

HARTFORD, May 13, 1862.

"Our losses may reach $15,000 or $20,000, but whatever they are, they will be paid before Saturday night if they can be adjusted. It is such fires that try the backbone of Companies, and if they can stand up under the heavy load, it will give them great credit."

S. L. LOOMIS, President.

H. WINGATE, Agent, June 4, 1862. Frankfort, Ky.
